ABOUT THE WRWC HONORARY TEXAS RATTLEERS COWGIRL BONUS AWARD

Adding to the excitement level of the 2023 Women's Rodeo World Championship, the PBR Texas Rattlers team has announced, as a part of their Team Texas initiative, they will honor a Texas resident cowgirl competing at this year's event. The award will be presented to the Texas resident cowgirl who earns the most amount of points in one discipline at this year's event.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

All female athletes entered in the 2023 Women's Rodeo World Championship that reside in Texas will be eligible to win the Honorary Texas Rattlers Cowgirl Bonus Award.

All eligible athletes will be given the option to wear a Team Texas patch during the WRWC competition. The amount of the cash bonus being paid to the winner will be dependent on whether the winner was wearing the Team Texas patch during the entire competition. The Team Texas patch will be distributed onsite at the athlete check-in on May 18.

HOW MUCH IS THE BONUS?

The Texas Resident that is the highest point earner in one discipline, and was wearing the Team Texas patch, will receive a $2,500 cash bonus. If they win and they were not wearing the patch, they will receive a $1,000 cash bonus.

WHAT IS THE POINT SCALE THAT WILL DETERMINE THE WINNER?

The points will be awarded based off of Round 1, Round 2, the Semi-Final Round and the 3 Run Aggregate at the 2023 Women's Rodeo World Championship. The WRWC Showdown Round and WRWC Triple Crown of Rodeo Round are not included.

TIE BREAKERS:

1. Most World points earned from a combination of points from all four (4) disciplines
2. Most World Points earned from a combination of points from at least three (3) disciplines
3. Most World points earned from a single discipline
4. Most money earned in the WRWC event
5. Individual WRWC Leaderboard rank coming into the event
6. If there is still a tie, the athletes will share the cash bonus amount
